JUDGMENT

Petitioner availed a loan of Rs.Two Lakhs from the third respondent for the marriage of the petitioner's daughter. Recovery steps were taken. Petitioner challenges the same.

2. Heard counsel for the petitioner and the Bank.

3. It is submitted that the interim order has been complied with and Rs.1,50,000/- has been deposited. Counsel for the petitioner prays that the Bank may consider the representation, which the petitioner will file and grant such benefits as the petitioner is entitled to in law. He submits that after considering such representation, a statement showing the amount remaining to be paid may be served on the petitioner within two weeks from the date of the decision of the Bank.

Accordingly the writ petition is disposed of as follows:

If the petitioner submits a representation within ten days from today before the third respondent, a decision will be taken thereon and the third respondent Bank will grant such benefits as the petitioner is entitled to in law and intimate the amount remaining to be paid by the petitioner in the form of a statement. The petitioner is permitted to pay off the amount remaining to be paid as indicated in the statement within two weeks from the date of receipt of the statement. Proceedings will be kept in abeyance for a period of six weeks from today.

(K.M. JOSEPH, JUDGE)
